

RESUME

Daniel H. Stauber, M.A., LCSW
11350 North Meridian Street, Suite 300
Carmel, Indiana 46032

Phone: (317) 574-1785
admin@cpcindy.com

Education:

Wabash College, B.A. (Psychology/Biology), 1969
Ball State University, M.A. (Preclinical Psychology), 1973
Ongoing MMPI and Rorschach Seminar led by Eugene Levitt, Ph.D., Director of Psychology Section, I.U. School of Medicine, January, 1976—June, 1981

Licenses/Registries:

Licensed Clinical Social Worker
Indiana Mediator's Registry
Parenting Coordinator

Experience:

Owner August, 2019-present
Daniel H. Stauber, M.A., LCSW
11350 North Meridian Street, Suite 300
Carmel, IN 46032

Responsibilities: Maintain an affiliation with CPC, but independent practice providing individual, family, and conjoint therapies to children and adults.

Community Psychological Consultants November, 2002-July 31, 2019
201 West 103rd Street, Suite 280
Indianapolis, IN 46290

Responsibilities: Provide evaluation, individual, family, and group therapy within independent practice setting composed of psychologists and clinical social workers.

Training/Education Coordinator July, 1997-September, 2004
Midtown Community Mental Health Center
Indianapolis, Indiana

Responsibilities: Development, coordination, and implementation of educational programs to enhance clinical and administrative skills of center staff to improve service delivery and meet administrative and oversight requirements. Specific responsibility for adult, child/adolescent, and older adult outpatient programs as well as collaboration with other area training/education coordinators for center wide education and training initiatives. Additional responsibilities include providing psychiatric consultation in Wishard Health Services primary care health centers, supervised psychological evaluation, and providing outpatient treatment to a limited child/adolescent caseload.

Multi-Team Director
Child/Adolescent Services
Midtown Community Mental Health Center
Indianapolis, Indiana
October, 1989—July, 1997

Responsibilities: Provided administrative and clinical supervision of multi-disciplinary child/adolescent programs, including general outpatient services, school consultation programs to three school systems, home-based assessment and treatment, and Sex abuse treatment services for county welfare department, and therapy component of jointly administered residential program with a local child welfare agency.

Assistant Team Director
Child/Adolescent Services
Midtown Community Mental Health Center
Indianapolis, Indiana
June, 1989—October, 1989

Responsibilities: Provided clinical supervision to outpatient team and managed satellite clinic. Maintained a small treatment caseload and provided supervised psychological evaluations.

Behavioral Clinician
Child/Adolescent Services
Midtown Community Mental Health Center
Indianapolis, Indiana
September, 1974—June, 1989

Responsibilities: Provided supervised psychological evaluation, individual and family treatment for children/adolescents and families; consultation, education, and in-service training for community agencies and schools; coordinated Day Treatment Program for children exhibiting behavior problems in public school (1976—'78); intensive consultation to special education classes at Indianapolis Public Schools (1978—'81).

Guest Lecturer April, 1976—Nov., 1980
Indiana University School of Law
Bloomington, Indiana

Responsibilities: One class each semester for “Roles and Relations” course. Presented videotaped role play and discussed interviewing techniques with adolescent juvenile offenders.

Adjunct Faculty September, 1981—1991
Department of Psychology
Indiana-Purdue University at Indianapolis
Indianapolis, Indiana

Responsibilities: Taught introductory and abnormal psychology to undergraduates

Behavior Management Consultant July, 1978—May, 1981
Regular Education In-Service Project
Monroe County School Corporation
Bloomington, Indiana

Responsibilities: Training in consultation and behavior management techniques to regular and special education teachers selected as “teacher consultant” and provided in-service training sessions for regular and special education teachers.

Probation Officer January, 1970—Sept., 1974
Marion County Juvenile Court
Indianapolis, Indiana

Responsibilities: Prepared court summaries with recommendations for disposition and provided casework services for a caseload of approximately eighty adjudicated delinquents; the last two years the caseload was limited to twenty in order to provide intensive services to selected families.